Once you have completed coursework, it is important that you set goals for yourself to advance your standing in your doctoral program or in academe (if academe is your projected future vocation). Examples of the former (doctoral program) could include building relationships with faculty who will be on your committee(s) and doing research for a particular dissertation chapter. Examples of the latter (academe) could include submitting proposals to speak at conferences or applying for outside fellowships or jobs.

3. What did you do THIS semester to advance your standing in your doctoral program or in your projected professional career (e.g., academe)? Specifically, what progress did you make on your dissertation in this and the previous semester?

4. What do you intend to do NEXT semester (the semester for which you are registering) to advance your standing in your doctoral program or in your projected professional career (e.g., academe)?
