Deadlines for Withdrawing from Classes in Summer:
The last day to withdraw (grade of “W”) from a class in Summer 2022 is August 14, 2022.

Any student who drops or withdraws from a Summer class on the last day of the session attended will be responsible for payment of 100% of the tuition for the class.

Failure to drop or withdraw from a class by the deadline will result in a grade of “UW” for the class. A grade of “UW” will be calculated in the cumulative GPA as a grade of “F”.

Transient Students
Current graduate degree-seeking students at other regionally accredited colleges or universities may enroll at Claremont School of Theology for academic credit as transient students. Transient students must be in good academic standing at their home institution and must be eligible to return to their home institution for further study. All Transient students must complete the Transient Student Enrollment Request form and have it approved by the Registrar or Dean at their current school. The Transient Student Enrollment Request form and a Registration form should be returned to the Claremont School of Theology Office of the Registrar by the first day of class.
Admission to Claremont School of Theology
All students wishing to enroll in a Summer 2022 class for academic credit who have not previously enrolled at Claremont School of Theology and students who are registering for Advanced Course of Study credit must complete and submit a Non-Degree Application for Admission.

Please note that Non-Degree applicants including students interested in taking a class for Advanced Course of Study credit will be required to provide proof of completion of a Bachelor of Arts degree.

Students who have been admitted to Claremont School of Theology for the Fall 2022 semester and have confirmed their admission may register for the Summer 2022 without completing a Non-degree application.

Please contact the Claremont School of Theology Admissions Office for information on applying as a Non-degree student.

Phone: (909) 447-6349
E-mail: admission@cst.edu

There is a $50 application fee for Non-Degree students enrolling for the first time at Claremont School of Theology.

Financial Aid:
Federal loan(s) and/or institutional aid may be used to pay for Summer tuition. Please plan ahead.

Contact the Financial Aid Office, financialaid@cst.edu, to discuss your financial aid options before the Spring semester ends. For more information about Financial Aid please contact:

Summer 2022
Course Descriptions

IDM437 Conflict, Healing, and Transformation in the Postcolonial World: A Preaching Focus
This course analyzes postcolonial conditions that have caused “conflicts” among communities. It aims for students to gain concepts and knowledge that are critical to understanding the world marked by colonial legacies. The course will engage students in grasping these postcolonial conditions that shape current realities in order to bring healing and transformation to Christian churches and marginalized communities for the sake of creating a most just world.

IDM438 Transforming Self and Educational Ministry in the Multicultural World
The course will be a practical seminar in helping students engage in each learning process as participants. Students will experience the critical thinking on themselves and the Christian Ministry in Korean society that faces multicultural and multiracial changes. This course will provide participants three dimensional opportunities including to reflect their inner selves utilizing cognitive behavioral theories, to analyze Korean situation of the immigrant, and to practice engaged learning process for transformative ministry.

TNT3046/4046 The New Testament through Global Perspectives: When Margins Speak!
This course on global hermeneutics and the Bible will explore various interpretations of the New Testament emerging from communities that have felt disenfranchised, powerless, and voiceless. Special attention will be given to issues of identity, colonialism and resistance, the ideological spectrum between the margins and the center, and critical approaches that resist dominant interpretations – in order to attend to “the continuing importance and practice of interpretation of texts and their communities in history and culture.”

TDS3000 United Methodist Doctrine
This course examines the foundations of United Methodist theology. Students will explore theological emphases of the early Wesleyan movement and major theological transitions in the 19th and 20th centuries. This course is designed to meet the United Methodist Church's ordination requirements for a course in UMC doctrine.

TDS3001 United Methodist History
This course explores the history of the United Methodist Church with an emphasis on the theological, historical, and contextual factors that shape its organizational structure, worship, and attitudes toward social issues. This course is designed to meet the United Methodist Church's ordination requirements for a course in UMC History.

TDS3002 United Methodist Polity
This course examines the missional priorities, ecclesiological forms, structure, and governance of the United Methodist Church that undergird its effort to 'make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world'. Students will explore the church's doctrinal statements as well as its understanding of ordination, conferencing, superintendency, and the local church. This course is designed to meet the United Methodist Church's ordination requirements for a course in UMC Polity.

TPS3063/4063 Process Theology Intensive
The 2022 Process Summer Intensive (TPS3063/4063) is a 1-week exploration (via live Zoom sessions) that includes three different adventures in process theology. The first segment explores the philosophical foundations of process thinking. The second segment builds on the first, exploring key contributions of process theology to particular theological and religious issues. The third segment explores the relevance of process philosophy and theology for addressing the most important challenges facing humanity today. The course will meet three times per day (9-11, 1-3, and 4-6 Pacific Time) from July 11-15, 2022.

TSC3030/4030 Addressing Gender-Based Violence in Communities of Faith
The course will study intimate and sexual violence in Biblical texts from a womanist theological lens which privileges the lived realities of Black women and women of color as a starting point for theological method. Students will examine gender-based violence in mainstream media as well as Hebrew texts illustrating violence and power over marginalized women and will work toward integration of this work in their local context and in the life of ministry, from preaching and bible study, religious education, to youth work and pastoral care.
