

September 30, 2021

Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund – Student Disclosure

1. Claremont School of Theology has signed and returned the Certification and Agreement to the Department of Education for funding under the CRRSAA and ARP programs. These programs allow for grants to students through the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF).
2. Claremont School of Theology is approved for $33,052 in funding from CRRSAA (HEERF II) and $88,559 in funding from ARP (HEERF III). $121,611 total funding for students.
3. $39,500 has been distributed to students.
4. 133 students were eligible for funding.
5. 133 students have received an Emergency Financial Aid Grant.
6. All students enrolled in a degree program at least half-time during Spring 2021 semester were eligible to participate and receive an emergency grant. Priority was given to students who filed a FAFSA form and demonstrated financial need. Refunds were immediately generated for direct payment to the students through bill.com.
7. Students were advised they may use an emergency grant to pay for any component of the their cost of attendance, including an outstanding account balance and/or tuition and fees, as well as for emergency costs that arise due to coronavirus, such as food, housing, health care (including mental health care) or child care.